

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

Betty J. Johnson North Sarasota Library

UF/IFAS Extension Sarasota County and Sarasota County Libraries and Historical Resources are partnering on a yearlong series of classes at your local public library. Join us for monthly workshops on key topics, from healthy eating on a budget to wildlife education.

Find your event(s) from among the following offerings, available at the Betty J. Johnson North Sarasota Library, 2801 Newtown Blvd., Sarasota:

One Seed

Learn with others how to grow vegetables
Mar 04, 11a to noon

Solar for Kids

Kid-friendly introduction to solar power, with hands-on projects
Mar 22, 4-5p

Owls, Adaptations and Pellet Dissection!

Family-friendly exploration of owls and what they eat
Apr 20, 3-4:30p

Disaster Preparedness

Learn how to prepare for a weather disaster
May 31, 11a to noon

Creatures of the Deep

Explore the creatures that live deep in our oceans
Jun 20, 1:30-2:30p

Sarasota Bay: Nursery of the Sea

Learn how Sarasota Bay provides safe haven for young marine life
Jul 11, 1:30-2:30p

Water Conservation in Sarasota County

Learn about local water resources and how to conserve them
Aug 02, 11a to noon

Shared Spaces: Creating Your Edible Garden

Advice for creating a vegetable garden
Sep 06, 11a to noon

Pollinators

Learn about these beautiful, critical creatures
Oct 11, 11a to noon

Health Benefits of Nature

Explore the health benefits nature provides
Nov 15, 11a to noon

MyPlate on a Budget

Ideas for making healthy meals on a budget
Dec 06, 11a to noon

LEARN MORE AND REGISTER
www.eventbrite.com/cc/151979

Questions? Call 941-861-5000 or email sarasota@ifas.ufl.edu.